

The Rev. Daren J. Zehnle
Annunciation Parish, Shumway, Illinois
16 September 2007

The Twenty-fourth Sunday of the Year (C)

The Gospel this weekend is one with which we are all very familiar. We hear it every year and we make passing reference to it frequently enough in our daily conversations. Yet, how well do we really understand it? There is much richness to this parable of Jesus and if we look at it carefully much wisdom can we gain from it. Hearing Jesus' words afresh, this parable to change the hearts of we, his prodigal children.